MISSION COOP APPEAL - SECOND COLLECTION

Fr. Linus Julian Sarte, MF, a priest of the Missionaries of Faith (MF), will be at all our Masses on July 25/26 weekend to appeal for the needs of the MF Missions in India, Myanmar, Samoa, The Philippines, and Vietnam, especially for the education, formation and maintenance of seminarians studying for the religious life and the priesthood. Please welcome Fr. Linus with generosity in your heart. Every penny goes a long way in the missions.

Mission Appeal - Missionary Cooperation Plan

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Pastoral Statement on World Mission "To the Ends of the Earth" #74 states the purpose of this Missionary appeal. "We ask that you missionaries share with us your experience as well as the faith experience of the people you serve. Our faith is deepened and broadened as we learn from you."

The plan is to help mission-sending societies solicit funds for their mission efforts as well as give them the opportunity to appeal for vocations to their communities. Our second collection will benefit the missions of the Missionaries of Faith. Dioceses in the USA have supported their missionaries since 1999.

Prayer to the Holy Trinity - Titular of the Missionaries of Faith

We adore you, we praise you, we glorify you and we thank you, O Holy Trinity, for the gift of religious and priestly vocation, that in faith we seek You and in the mission, we walk towards You.

God the Father, sanctify us for the glory of your name and accompany us with your paternal protection so as to be always faithful to our vocation as religious and priests Missionaries of Faith.

Son of God, Jesus the Evangelizer, help us to live a true and constant state of filial abandonment to the will of the Father, in order to announce and witness the Faith to all men.

Holy Spirit, pour out upon us grace and joy in faith and fill our hearts with your love, so as to love, praise and serve You.

This is the third Sunday in a row that we have read from Matthew chapter 13. We now have heard all the parables from the chapter in Matthew that is sometimes called "The Gospel in Parables. The biblical scholar CH .Dodd offers the classic definition of a parable: in its simplest, the parable is a metaphor of common life, arresting the hearer by its vividness and strangeness, and leaving the mind in a sufficient doubt about it's precise application to tease it in the active thought. "I AM Joseph your brother!"

What Image of the Kingdom Will You Serve Up?

ANN M. GARRIDO

Jesus' favorite thing to talk about was a mystery he called the kingdom of God, referred to in the Gospel of Matthew as the kingdom of heaven. He was not the first to speak of it. The prophets before him spoke often of God's dream for the world. They wanted all to know what it would look like when God reigns here on earth as God already reigns in the heavens. But Jesus added to that teaching by offering vivid new images of what God's reign is like. Matthew 13 is filled with such snapshots. The kingdom of heaven will be like a mustard seed, a pearl, a measure of leaven, a hidden treasure. It will be like a sower casting out seed, a wheat harvest, a net that catches many fish.

At the end of this litany, however, Jesus offers an image of what he expects of those who have received his teaching about the Kingdom. They are to be like “the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old” (Matthew 13:52). It sounds as if Jesus' disciples are to act like hosts of a banquet, setting the table with stories from across time to feed their guests with whatever words and images would best help them grasp the mystery of this kingdom. They are to continue Jesus' work of developing new ways to illumine a mystery that is in the end too great for words. ●

Reflect

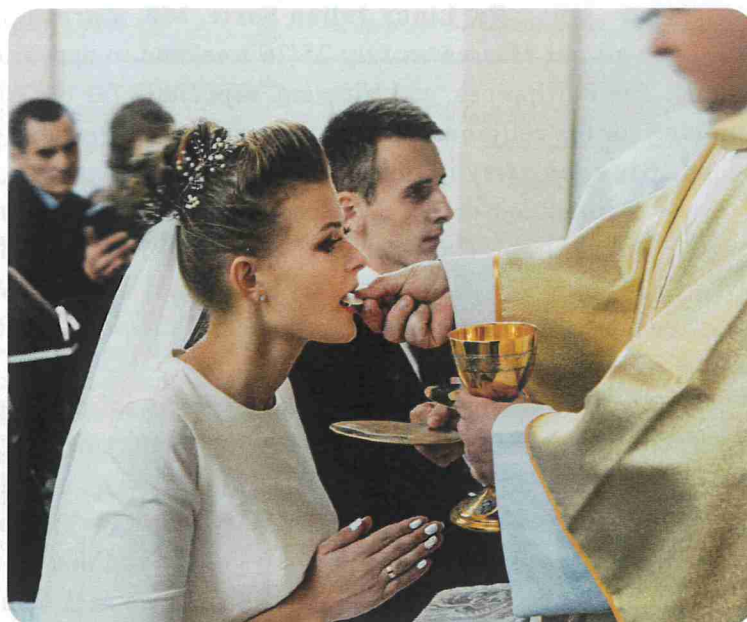

What image of God's kingdom would you offer people of the twenty-first century?

Dear Padre,

I'm in the OCIA program. My wife and I were married civilly. She goes to a non-denominational church but is not baptized. Someone said we would have to get our marriage "convalidated." Why? And what does that mean?

Convalidation is a legal term, but it can also be understood as good pastoral practice and even more as a wise spiritual choice. Basically, from a legal point of reference, your marriage took place outside of the canonical structure of the Church.

It needs to be "regularized" and "documented" for you to move forward. Because your wife is not baptized, it cannot be a sacramental marriage, which requires baptism, but it can be made valid and recorded in official Church documentation. Such documentation is helpful, particularly if you have children and intend to raise them as Catholic. Also, if your wife ever decides to become a baptized Catholic, your marriage would automatically become a sacramental marriage when she is baptized. Nothing more is required of you. All in all, it is a good decision and a positive step in your spiritual journey. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

God speaks to us.... [T]he first attitude to cultivate is listening, so that the divine Word may penetrate our minds and our hearts; at the same time, we are required to speak with God, not to communicate to him what he already knows, but to reveal ourselves to ourselves. Hence the need for prayer, in which we are called to live and to cultivate friendship with the Lord.
