September 19-20, 2026

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me… to bring good news to the poor" Lk 4:18; cf. Is 61:1

The 2026 Catechetical Sunday theme from Luke 4:18 and Isaiah 61:1, reveals Jesus' mission and identity. Anointed by the Holy Spirit, he is sent to bring hope, healing, and freedom—especially to the poor, the brokenhearted, and the forgotten. This passage shows that the Messiah comes not with power or status, but with compassion, restoring dignity and proclaiming God's mercy. It also becomes a model for the Church, us, which is called to continue Christ's work by sharing the Good News and caring for those most in need.

Our annual celebration of Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. I am extremely grateful for all those who have responded to the call to serve in our Religious Education Programs.

This year in our Wednesday night Religious Education Programs we have 15 students and 5 catechists at St. Anselm's, 120 students and 20 catechists and volunteers at St Joseph, and 21 students and 6 catechists at St. Mary's. Please pray for the catechists, our young people and their parents and guardians.

Please keep our Directors of Religious Education (DREs) in your prayers. From St. Anselm's we have Jill Thompson and Linly Schmidt, St. Joseph's Molly Ryan, and St. Mary's Laura Kipp. They provide a critical ministry in our parishes, leading the programs, recruiting and supporting catechists and creating a safe and positive learning environment for our young people.

I appreciate the commitment of parents and catechists for being involved in the parish and attending weekend liturgy. I offer praise and thanks to God for the service of our catechists to this important ministry of passing on our faith!

I AM Joseph your brother! Fr. Joe Hannappel

Prayer for Catechists

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church. Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word. Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you. Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son. We pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops designated the third Sunday in September as Catechetical Sunday. (Source: USCCB)

Calling all Singers

Please consider coming and joining with us in preparing a cantata for this year's Christmas season. The first practice will be September 23rd at 7:30 pm at the United Methodist Church in Broken Bow. Performances, practice schedule and music purchase will be discussed then. If you have any questions, please call Lance Bristol at (308) 212-0577 or email at lance.bristol2@gmail.com.

Happy Birthday!

Joan Johnson of St. Joseph turns 93 on Sept. 24.

St. Anselm now has a Bible Study!

The first session is after Mass this Sunday, September 20 and all future sessions will also follow 8:30am Mass. All are invited to attend.

The Study will use FORMED's Lectio: Prayer: Finding Intimacy with God series.
